Join Us for our 150th Birthday Party!

Date: Sunday, Sept. 14, 2003 Time: 11 a.m.–4 p.m. Location: Hilltop and Medical Campuses

The St. Louis Community and University alumni are invited to join all of St. Louis for a remarkable day on our campuses. The 150th Birthday Party will reflect what the University is and does—with more than 200 events and activities accessible to all.

Selected Highlights:

Magic Mark! You've never seen chemistry like this! Presented by Chancellor Mark S. Wrighton.

Readings from Faculty Writers Readings of works from past and present faculty writers in Duncker Hall.

Concerts A two-hour concert features the University's student a cappella groups. Organ, piano, Japanese drum, and chamber orchestra concerts. Music and dance from India in Edison Theatre.

Dred Scott Mock Trial You are inside the courtroom for this historic proceeding!

Lectures Lewis and Clark, financial decision making, the cultural history of St. Louis and Chicago, Cahokia Mounds, the psychology of happiness, Shakespeare, world art, the Enron scandal, physics, medicine, engineering—and more!

Physics with a Bang A presentation sure to keep you on your toes!

History of Washington University Find out about the history of the University in a lecture and video presentation.

Sounds of World Poetry Listen to our faculty read poems from around the world, both in their original languages and in translation.

School of Medicine Activities Take a shuttle to the Medical Campus to enjoy a variety of lectures and demonstrations (including ones for children). Plus physical therapy demonstrations, a free posture analysis, and blood pressure and cholesterol screenings.

Presentations Modern dance and the African-American legacy, ballet, jazz, and world dance. Chinese history and fashion. Techniques for architectural modeling and animating, and student works in art and architecture.

Computers Internet gaming, 'Faculty Favorite' Web pages, video games on the big screen, and language learning programs.

International Games and Music World culture through a variety of games, music, and costume displays.

For the Kids!

Goldilocks on Trial—Goldilocks vs. the Three Bears This mock trial will settle this dispute once and for all.

Lewis the Robot Photographer Built at Washington University, Lewis will take pictures during the afternoon in Lopata Hall.

Children's Story Time Professor and distinguished author Gerald Early will read children's literature in Duncker Hall.

The Mad Hatter's Tea Party A children's play taking place outdoors.

Pop-Up Books Workshop Kids can browse through amazing pop-up books and can even make their own!

Literary Fun A children's area in Duncker Hall will include readings and a writing workshop.

Sports Clinics Basketball and volleyball clinics in the Athletic Complex; a soccer clinic on Francis Field; and a baseball clinic on Kelly Field.

A Kid's View of Washington University A computer exhibit examining the University from a child's perspective.

7:00 p.m. performance of: The Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra Bring a blanket or lawn chair, and you may bring your own food and drink.
